BUBBLE WRAP MINI ROLLS

For Ecommerce Packaging Merchants & Resellers

BIODEGRADABLE BUBBLE WRAP

Triplast is one of a handful of manufacturers worldwide that has the capability to produce a fully biodegradable form of bubble wrap, as opposed to oxo-degradable bubble wrap (which is widely termed 'biodegradable' in the UK market, but in fact is not, as recently identified by Amazon).

What is the difference between fully biodegradable bubble wrap and oxo-degradable bubble wrap?

Fully biodegradable bubble wrap is an innovative product introduced by Triplast and degrades by the process of biodegradation over a period of time, regardless of whether it is exposed under sunlight, once it goes underground into landfill. Furthermore, it only starts to degrade when it goes into landfill conditions, extending the shelf life of the product for businesses. Fully biodegradable bubble wrap also biodegrades in full, there are no particles left over whatsoever.

Oxo-degradable bubble wrap does not decompose unless it is exposed to sunlight – hence once it goes underground into landfill, it does not break down. Furthermore, it never fully decomposes.

At Triplast, we do not manufacture oxo-degradable products, this is a fully biodegradable version of bubble wrap. Available in both green and blue versions.
